While Jack was delivering himself of this laudatory notice of the short commander, he adroitly concealing the pistol-case under his cloak—the phaeton was sent round to the yard-and, after issuing due directions to his servant touching the greys, we started for the scene of action

I wonder who it is we are to shoot!' said Jack

Or be shot by?' I responded with a sigh. 'No fear of that, John. Has there been an acciden in our family these thirty years but two? and everybody knows that our grand-onele, long Dominick, would have shot Clancy, if he had not forget his spectacles. Luck's everything—never take your eye from your man—pull when you come to the present, and I'll bet a hundred we give the coroner a job."

'Heaven forbid, Jick! It would ruin me;—if I killed him I should be disinherited."

Then level low and hit him in the legs. He gh ho! I should like to get an inventory of the articles I smash, ed at Pauline's. Zounds! it would make a saint swear, to think that for a petty equabble, you will have the pleusure of shooting at a scoundrel that only elbowed you in the street; while I, under such provocation, must be contented with breaking a footigan's bones, and de-men of business. The anentty of manner that marked their intercourse was delightful, while their politeness. Cuty by requested to make suitable arrangements would have put a muster of ceremonies to the blush.

"I think this is as sweet a spot," said the little man, distance from this glove!" and he laid one of his waite clock.

*We'll place the gentlemen, if you please, colonel," leave any line to direct the eye."

Precisely so." And the commander similed gra-

*Do you fight at ten or twelve?" inquired my cousin, and his bow was superb.
"Why, faith!" said the colonel, "personally, I prefer ten; but I fancy tize he is the favorite distance, - and one must go with the world, you know." And the gentlemen interchanged an innocent laugh.

'Allow me to tell-off the ground," said my kinsman, "and you can correct the pares after me."

'Lord, by no means!-quite cert in of your accuraoy;" and Jack stepped over the grees as gingerly as a the First Destrict of duncing mas er. Confound him he seemed cripples; I friendly to Democrated seen him take a stride of twice the length in cross present Administration sing a dirty sweeping.

The colonel turned to me.

Perfect gentleman your friend there-au fait at his arrangements. With a leetle more experience, there would not be a prettier second in England.—We may ing to be regulate the tools," he continued, as my cousin returned from after sticking a twig into the turf, twelve paces from Control the cotonel's kid-skin; and the commander proceeded to unlock a mahog my-box, hitherto concerled junder an opera-cloak.

"What a nice fellow that major is John!- :- :- :trump. I'll take my outh he's the man that was tried for murder." And he opened his case, and the friends extracted a weapon each from their respective deposit. ories. The colonel handed a pistol to my kinsman, who in return presented his to the short commander. "Could you execute with that Stancenneyer." -44 the little man.

*Beautifully balanced!" responded Jack the Devil.

But I infinore accustome; to the saw.hanilee."
'Sweet lock that of Mortuner!" and every click went through me like a small-sword. There they were, bandying compliments, and criticising "back action," as coolly as if chatting in a shooting-gallery.

'Shall we load the case?" quoth Jick. "I think we had better, as your friend is not disposed

I never saw men more expeditious. The nistals were loaded —the firing signal agreed upon,—and a sovereign tossed for choice of ground and word.—Jack won that honor, and he placed me with my right too directly be-The colonel was equally attentive to my adversary:

he assisted him to take off his great-coat, and then put him on his ground.

'Be steady, now?" said Jack the Devil, in a whisper. I fixed my eye upon my opponent. Holy Saint Parick! the first glance showed me a man I had never differed with in my life-it was Neville of the Guarde Jack backe silence. "Stop, colonel; there's mistake."

'None in the world, my dear fellow,' replied the shor "Why, these gentlemen have no cause of quarrel!" ex-

'Oh, abundant! said the soldier 'I tell you they have not.'

'Why, sir! was there not a kicking-match in Curron etreet?

'Ay; but there was another in Coventry-street.'

'I assure you, sir,' I replied, 'I have not the most re-

'Then, sir, whom did you come out to fight?'
'Nobody that I see here, sir.'

'Are you, sir, Captain John Blake?'

I am and there is another, and I pointed to my

That is the person who insulted me, said Neville

Well, well; the thing is easily remedled. Had it bec half an hour later, we might have had a shot or two before we found the true man. And that puts all right, This morning, Mrs. Sarah Taylor, wife of for Jack and I had charged manners, and you ready!

Both answered in the affirmative. The little man took out his saufficer, and nedded politaly to me. I gave also word. The observation went the pistole and down went Mr. Neville of the Guarde.

Margiand Magette.

ANNAPOLIS: Thursday, July 30, 1835.

COUNCIL CHAMBER, ANNAPOLIS, July 27, 1835. There will be a meeting of the Executive Council, on Monday, the 17th of August next.
THOS. CULBRETH, Clerk.

EXAMINATION.

A Public Examination will be held in the The Trust es, Parents, Guardians, and all in-RICH'D. H. WATERS, Teacher.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

for its reception.

The delegates from Anne-Arundel county, "so we could and upon the field,-small we mark the und Annapolis, are requested to meet at 11 o'- responded Jack the Davil, "across the ridge, and not Sixth Election District will be stranguish sup, the facts, they are or fly these. One Tatt, a ported as a Candidate to represent Anne-Arun slave agent from the South, having learned that del country in the next General Assembly of this a family of slaves, consisting of a man, his wite were detected before they did any mischief. State by many voters in the Fifth and Sixth Districts.

did to represent Artie-Artialel four y in the as f r as Hamburth, when they effected a respectable authority we learn there were two next General Assembly, and was how wordly cue, and bore the liberated individuals off in tri Cotton confessed every charge made against MANY VOTERS. supported by

At a meeting of a port on of the Voters of the First District of Arme Aran 1-1 county, them and several citizens who had been called or promptes and to the . Greend Govern. ment, on Saturday IXS SHILMAN was called to

The Ch ant of five Delegates the melec. purpose of meeting in of Annapolis on Saturto represent the cities of Annapolis venor for trial. . . . the county of Anne-Arundel.

Official conflemen were appointed by the meeting, with that might occur, viz: John S Sellman, Dr. R.) bert Franklin, Benjamin Tongue, Solomon G. Chiney, and Francis Key.

Resolutions were adopted unanimously, reas asling harmony, self-denial, every thing ciui, and nothing for men. Atter which the meeting adjourn !.

> ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY, Ju : 25th, 1 -35, opologize: it will save trouble, and bring the affair county, held this day at the Free Sch ol, agree-soner to an end." ers of the Second Election District of this true. sq. was appointed Chairman, and William

> Resolved, That this meeting approve of the or have our throats cut, by the negroes. Convention to assemble at Annapolis on the dreadful alarm exists, particularly among the feecommending suitable Candidates to represent this Congressional District in the next Congress of the United States.

in the Maryland Gazette, Annapolis. THOS. SNOWDEN, Sen. Chairman. W H. Woodfield, Sec'y.

Communicated.

Mr. J. A. Smith closed his course of instruc tion in Dancing at this place, by a numerously attended Exhibition Ball on Wednesday, the Pon honor, gentlemen, the thing is most incompre.

Abennible. Will you, sir, and he addressed himself to 22d inst. The progress which his Pupils have me, inform me if it be your intention to fire at my made during the very short period of his residence. made during the very short period of his resi-dence among us, was matter of high gratifica-tion to every beholder, and peculiarly pleasing to the parents and friends of the graceful young beings, upon whom Mr. Smith's attention has been so suggestfully bestowed. We hope that a due share of public patronage will continue to reward the diligence and ability of that gen tleman, whether he intends to revisit us next season, or select a different theatre for the teach ing of his elegant and useful art.

AFFECTING SCENE.

for his life about three years ago, for shooting to Jack and I had changed places. And now gen, his coloned by candle light. It must be the same; themen, we yes ready!

Both answered in the affirmative. The little man alone when the call her should be done the colone of the call her, sho was lying in her bed.

Contact the same of the call her, sho was lying in her bed.

Contact the same of the call her, sho was lying in her bed.

Contact the call her, sho was lying in her bed.

Contact the call her, sho was lying in her bed.

Contact the call her same of the call her, sho was lying in her bed.

Contact the call her same of the call her, sho was lying in her bed. with her four children asleep or playing around her, unconscious of the calamity which made them orphass. Her appearance was natural, her countenance calm. Death had visited her with equal gentleness and suddenness. Two age; the other two are younger. Her husband is down the river at present purming his vocation.—Phil. Gaz.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM HANGING. On Thursday night week the feelings of the On Thursday night week the feelings of the ma est lex," the good people of that place and audience at the Garrick Theatre, in London, its vicinity appointed a committee to pass on the were painfully excited by the following circum-guilt or innocence of the accused, and they act-stance:—During the performance of Signor ed accordingly. The two whites were pro-Plimmeri on the slick rope, he suspended him-nounced guilty on yesterday, and after the senself in the centra of the stage by forming a tence was announced, an hour was allowed them Primary School on Green-street, on Saturday noose in the rope, through which he passed his for preparation, when they were swung off.—
August 1st, commencing at 9 o'clock, A. M.— head, so that the whole weight of his body rest. One of them under the gallows, acknowledged ed on the back part of his head and chin. That the justice of his fate, and stated that the plan part of the rope which pressed on his chin ac-cidentally slipped underneath, and on to his tie's Bluff in Madison to Natchez: that the disthroat, and baving lost all power to relieve him- covery there would probably defeat it as to this self from his painful and perilous aituation, stran- part of the State, but that there would be a ris-The delegates who met on the 30th ult. at gulation was rapidly going on. The audience ing that night so sure as the night should come, Waterloo Tavern, Anne Arundel county, agree.

Waterloo Tavern, Anne Arundel county, agree. be contented with breaking a nontualize contest, and contented with breaking a nontualize contented with breaking a nontualize content of the friends of the General tro.

As he spoke we mounted a side; and, in the corner of a large grassfield, observed two persons in waiting, who we concluded were the aggreered one and his point, and Anne-Arundel county, to nominate together may be more easily connected with breaking a nontualized day, that a few moments must have terminated and carrying off plunder.

"We have heard nothing further this morning, who we concluded were the aggreered one and his point, and Anne-Arundel county, to nominate together may be more easily connected with points. The Postmaster at Livingston sent notice to the difficulty of this place, so soon as there was a surmise of the

> From the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser. SLAVE CASE AND RIOT.

Yest rday afternoon our streets were thronged by a mob, under considerable excitement produced by the arrest of a slave family, and CHARLES D. WARFIELD, Esq. of the their subsequent rescue. As far as we can learn and child, were living at St. Catharines, U. C. went over and brought them away in the night. They were followed to this city, BARZILLAI MARRIOTT, Lev. a Can. of b eks organised, and pursued the kidnappers un h, with the intention of placing them again on m. Canadian side; but when at the ferry at Bl ck Rock, a rencontre took place between by the police to assist in arresting them, which re ulted in somewhat severe injuries on both siles. One young gentleman named Fremont, dancis Key ap. attached to Mr. Duffy's Theatre, received a dan gerous confusion on the temple, from an iron ball in the hand of one of the blacks, during

The slaves succeeded in making good their escape. Eight or ten of the blacks engaged in ist nat, to nominate two the riot have been committed by Justice Gros-

TROUBLE AT THE SOUTH.

From the Nashville Banner of July 15. INSURRECTION OF THE SLAVES IN MISSISSIPPI.

A merchant of Nashville received a letter this Mississippi, giving an account of an extensive

The writer says:

meeting being explained by the Chair, the fol. been under arms day and night, in our own delowing resolutions were unanimously a lopted: | fence, expecting every moment to be burned up among the negroes, for the last six months, decent citizens. Since the alarm of an intenheaded by white men. The massacre was to ded insurrection, well grounded suspicion had Resolved, That Edmund Clagett, Richard W. have commenced on the 4th of July. Their rested on many white men, as instigators and Resolved, That Edmund Clagett, Richard W. Higgins, Joseph J. Hopkins, Ely Lusby, and plans were well laid, and, no doubt but that James Mills, be appointed Delegates to said thousands of the whites would have been murrant preachers, steam doctors, and clock pedlars, week here. Convention, to represent this Election District.

Resolved. That we will use all honourable fore the time, by a faithful negrecore. arable fore the time, by a faithful negro man, who was Some of the negroes when first apprehended means to support the election of the Candidates in all their secrets, and was to have been high in command, and who revealed to his master at Livingston made similar and the two white men hung in command, and who revealed to his master at Livingston made similar confessions. Resolved, That these proceedings be signed the whole plan; and to convince him of its recitizens of Vicksburg formed an anti-gamblers by the Chairman and Secretary, and published ality, placed his master in a position where, society on the 4th, and at night Lynched one of from his place of concealment, he could over- the fraternity. The next morning they gave "A great many negroes were, in consequence taken up in Madison county, from whom the committee found out who the white leaders were. About ten negroes and five or six white men have been hung without any form of law or trial, except an examination before the examining ommittee. They are still going on trying and hanging. It appears, from a confession that Dr. Cotton made, that their route was to have commenced from some place above this, and proceed thence through the principal towns, to Natchez, and then on to New Orlean saurdering all the white men and ugly wohen—sparing the handsome ones and making wives of them—and handsome ones and making wives of them—and plundering and burning as they ment. Dr. Cot-ton after being condemned upon negro testimo-ny, made a confession, and disclosed the whole ny, made a confession, and disclosed the whole plan. He is an old confederate of a man by the name of Murrell, now in the Nashville Penitentiary."

dated the 5th July, 1835.

"Our community is in a state of excitement, on the subject of an insurrection of the slaves, after a follow by the name of flats, Carabin of the party, stated that after our informatic by the party are informatic by the party and the party are informatic by the party are pretty generally, and that last night was the qual gentleness and suddenness. Two the time fixed on for the purpose. In Madison children are twins under ten years of county, they have hung two white men (both doctors,) and seven negroes at least. A boot Livingston the excitement was greatest The summary justice, however, of Miss ans has probably quieted the spirit for ye Acting on the principle of "salus populi supre-friend. We were not astray; for, on approaching them, two candidates to represent this double distract scribed. In consequence of the difficulty of this place, so soon as there was a surmise of the the little commander advanced uncovered, and Jack and equally polite. For my part, I felt no fancy to exhalf a bire head to a gendeman I intended liming for late, and indeed my opponent appeared equally unsocial, for and indeed my opponent opposed equally unspecial, for Arandel county who had not appointed dele. out down there were scarcely any signs of life. Plantations below; a day or two will remove or D. Arandel county who had not appointed dele. he turned his back and waiked slowly off. I strove to extend his back and waiked slowly off. I strove to extend filmest of his features, but he was so closely encepted in a boxcoit that it failed me totally.

Around I county who mad not appointed defected from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is who had been ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is who had been ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is who had been ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is who had been ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is who had been ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is who had been ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is who had been ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is the confirm those fears. Other white persons and is had been ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is the confirm those fears. Other white persons and is now ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is the confirm those fears. Other white persons and is now ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is now ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is now ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is now ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is now ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is now ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is now ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is now ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is now ordered from the place, in confirm those fears. Other white persons and is now ordered from the place, in confirm those fears.

> FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE AF-FAIR AT VICKSBURG, AND THE CON-TEMPLATED REVOLT IN MISSIS. SIPPI-TWENTY.SIX PERSONS HUNG.

Extract of a letter dated

- JACKSON, July 8. 'Twenty miles from this place, in Madison county, a company of white men and negrees On Sunday last they hung two steam doctors when a party so seven negroes, without law or gospel, and from respectable authority we learn there were two Cotton confessed every charge made against him, and that their object was to murder all, and to get as much property and cash as they could travel with-he also confessed that he and Ballance, who is since taken, belonged to the celebrated Mansel's company, of Tennessee, who is in the penitentiary. The last words he spoke, he remarked, the citizens from Madison county to Natchez would get H-ll. The whole country is in arms, and assembled at difterent points to protect their families.

I am, very respectfully, &c.'

(Postscript from the Natchez Courier, July 10.) More news from Madison Hinds, and Warrens. A gentleman from above brings us the following news. While at Spring Hill on the sixth, from fifteen to twenty gentlemen rode up from Madison county. They stated that they had hung at Livingston several negroes, and two -white men, Cotton and Saunders, both steam doctors. and occasionally preachers. They had obtained from Cotton a list of about fifty white men corning, from a gentleman of respectability in who were concerned in the conspiracy to excite the negroes to rebellion, fourteen of whom seditated insurrection of the slaves in that they had already caught, and had them in chains tire, which was, fortunately discovered a few at Vernon and Livingston. They had but few he fore the intended massacre took place. minutes provious caught another named Rawson, The letter is evidently written under strong excir ment, and perha, s, with some exaggeration; meant to have before morning. The next mor-At a meeting of the Jackson Republ.can Vot. but the account given is, no doubt, substantially ning our informant went to Squire Sharkeys where a number had assembled. Squire S. said that the Madison men should not take the prial take a few moments from the awful distress soners out of the county—a disagreement was and confusion existing here, to inform you that the result, and they were discharged. This evirent that it would not be any fault of theirs, if the H Woodfield Secretary. The object of the this (Hinds) and several adjoining counties, have same company caught and confined a man by Having reached Vicksburg, our informant in-A quired the particulars respecting the affair there, "An insurrection has, it appears, been on hand who had hith "rto bid defiance to the law, and dezvous for gamblers, murderers and swindlers hear one of their night meetings, at which the public notice, that all gamblers must leave town in twenty-four hours.

That night another was Lynched. The next morning the citizens understood that a noted gambler, named North had defied them, barricaded his house and had employed several of his fellows to guard him, his nouse, and assembled, The volunteers were immediately assembled, the volunteers were immediately assembled, arched to the fellows to guard him, his house; and themselves. and the citizens eu masse united residence of North and deman ed. admittance. and an unconditional surreng er of the inmates They were refused, and to that those within could protect themselves. The front door was forced, the occupants fred, and Dr. H. S. Bod. the ley, a gentleman of great worth, was instantly and killed. This une pected reception aroused the citizens to madn citizens to madeess and desperation. A rush was made, the Gamblers were secured—4 in number. North and a notorious confederate not being found in the house, one of the most worthless of the four informed where they were to be s and desperation. A rush found, and they were soon accured, The mis ison, rows some warre see the self serie vere in confinement and would be hung. Hiram Perkins, of Madison, was shot by opposite Shameways, near Que county, by a gang of confederate a irons Mr. Dixon arrived at Vicinburg on he 8th, and stated that Perkins was aling survive, and that another of the party. Mr. how many could not be ascertained. About tainly been apprehended.

The New Orleans Bullstin of the 12th i tains the following paragraph in addition

The steamer Freedom confirms the repo cution of the Vicksburg gamblers, and also on the 4th instant a quarrel originated on I Washington County, Mississippi, between or ger and Chaney, and that on the 6th Co friends were attacked by Hashburger and frie attack resulted in the death of tw Chaney, and Wm. Chance, Mr. Howard, a belonging to Hashburger, and Richard Ch wounded. It was reported at Vicksburg of the in consequence of difficulties among the insurrectionists, and others, twenty six personal black, suffered death in the State of Mis

Steamer Mogul reports that she aw at ; with the same description of persons, but females—all bound down the Mississippi. with the same description. of Natchez had driven every suspicious a part of their town known as "Natcher Hill."

FOREIGN. CONTINUATION OF FOREIG

HOUSE OF LORDS-June 1 SPAIN.—Lord Strangford asked was intended to burthen the public v provision for the widows and children subjects who might fall in the Spanish

Lord Melbourne replied in the negati The Duke of Wellington gave notice fonday next he should move that a co Order in Council be laid before their L in order to afford the Noble Viscou bourne) an opportunity to give a more explanation upon the subject to which it The Marquis of Londonderry thoug the issuing of this order in Council was the most important questions that couldb before Parliament, and he hoped the Nob would persevere in giving the House an funity to take this matter into conside

CANADA.-Lord Aberdeen moved is py of the appointment of Lord Gosford tain General and Governor of the Cana va Scotia, and New Brunswick. He put the question with the intention of co sing his Majesty's Government, but me the purpose of learning from them their or having departed from the plan of a out a Lord Commissioner-a departure inconsequence of the delay that it had oc e looked upon with serious apprehens danger to the colony and to the ireat Britain. Lord Glenelg said, in consequence of uiries which he had instituted since he into office, himself and his colleagues had necessary to change the plan of processanctioned by the late Government, but i tirely to depart from it. The late Gove contemplated the appointment of a Lord C sioner; the present Government inten-appoint a commission of three of whom t ernor was to be chief.

Lord Aberdeen regretted that Gover had seen ... Dv necessity for departing fro original design. He however felt oblig the Noble Lord for the explanation given Adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE OF COM MONS, June 11

Church of Scotland. Sir William Rae brough torward his n for referring to a select committee the pet that had been presented to the House grant to t -Mr. Pringle seconded the motion.

The Lord Advocate said that as to a gr the public money, he maintained that it be most unjust towards the Dissenters, wh ry reasonably object to be called upon to scribe towards the en'argement from which they dissented. [Cheers.] learned Lord concluded by moving an teamed Lord concluded by moving an ad to his Majesty, for the appointment of a col sion to inquire into the means of reli worship afforded to the people of Scot whether belonging to the Church or to an nomination of Dissenters, and also into the Churches in Scotland, as the only course could lead to any satisfactory result.

After some farther discussion, it was agr pon the motion of Sir W. Rae, to adjor

NOTICE. HE subscriber having removed to a country, has pleased his basiness in hands of James H. Watking, Esq. who is ly authorised to receive all sums of mo which are due to him JOHN S. SELBY

July 2,-tf.

ATTENTION GUARDS: Voll are ordered to meet on your usus Parade Ground, State House Hill, or SATURDAY next, at your o'clock, P. M. with arms and accourrements in good order,

By order, WM. BRYAN, O.S.

NOTICE.

Harried, in Baltimore, on Tuesday evening inst. by the Rev. Mr. Bassford, Mr. E. W. Dawner to Mrs. Dasonan McLauch

int of Ellicott's Mills, A. A. County.

THE undersigned will be absent from Ar napolis for a few weeks Persona bavin hesisess of any kind with him during his at sence, are referred fo Mr. Aaron Duvalt.
WASHINGTON G. TUCK.

1st 50.

THE GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM THE GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECURE OR, THE STORTING AND DRAMATIC COMPANION languaged with a multitude of Engravings, inclusing Portraite of celebrated Winning Horses, Philipshies and Natural Phenomena, Logardamain, described in Philadelphia—and although the public character in Philadelphia—and although the public of its merits, yet such is the satisfaction manifest by the portion of the public who have reen margained with its character and contents, that its legions continues constantly and rapidly tori increase for such as the period of the Union, and the most satisfaction can be also be a such as the period of the Union, and the most satisfaction can be also be a such as the period of the Union, and the most satisfaction can be also be a such as the period of the Union, and the most satisfaction can be also be a such as the period to early be a such asuch as the period to early be a such as the period to early be a

The different Plays and Firees that will appear become of a year, of themselves, will be wort that FUUR times the amount of subscription. filowing is a list of those which have already appear Charles the First.
Is She a Brigand.

The Hanch lack. The Deep, Deep Sea,

Miss Mitford. R. P. Smith, J. S. Knowles, J. R. Planene, F. Reynolds, C. A. Somerset, R. P. Smith. Casp Living.
Subspare's Early Days.
Heni Quatre.
Beign of Bethnal Green,
Williams at Wires.

F. Reynolds.
C. A. Somerset,
R. P. Smith.
J. S. Knowles. Borgar of Bethnal Green, Hashads and Wives, Man of Ten Thousand, The Lidies Man, Fil Tell You What, The Golden Farmer, Secondarion Thomas Holcroft. William E. Burto F. M. Rev

- W. T. Moncrieff. J. R. Plincie. H. M. Milner. Mrs. Inchbald. R. B. Peake. W. Barrymore.

Vaccoine, The Omnibus, The Child of Nature, The Rencontre, The Duel, The Sisters, Floor, Herauti.

James Kennedy.
The MSS of the Irish Ambassador, the favourite an obligation of the Irish Ambassador, the favourite and obligation of the Irish Ambassador, the favourite and obligation of the Irish College and sed forthwith.

The Sporting Intelligence, at home and abroad, or mies a considerable portion of our columns, and placed from the most authentic sources. Among the bruits of celebrated Winning Horses which have The American Trotting Horse, Edwin Forrest.

The Imported Racing Horse, Messenger. The farourite Racing Marc, Ariel, and her foal, b Bond's celebrated Trotting Horse, Norfolk Phenome

m. The well known English Race Horse, Touchstone.

Aromet Picture of a Race Course, occupying thish of even columns.

Ammg a writer of other Embellishments of subject introst, which have been published, are the followed. A complete Treatise on Riding, with fourteen Illu-hiosa for the improvement of L. dies in that mo-lathy of all exercises.

Explanation of the Automaton Chess-Player, illu

Engines of cateorated Horses, with their Foundation, Fowling, &c.
Approved Games, from Hoyle and others.
Criticisms on Plays and Actors.
The most popular Songs, set to music.
The art of Legardemain illus-rated.
A variety of Recipes adapted to Domestic Econom. As Epitome of important passing events.
Gentlemen's Quarterly Review of the Fashions.
The Vade Mectum is printed on largo imperial pays a beaufield white texture, and is published every they, at Three Dollars per annum, in advance. Orders alread, postage paid, will be promptly attended to add the paper carefully packed to prevent it from rules in the paper carefully packed to prevent it from rules.

The Modern Acting Drama, a volume of about 3 few sodern Acting Drama, a volume of about 3 few containing the Plays, Farces, &c., which appears he vade Mecum, neatly printed, and bound in class was, for transportation—is published every six week and the statement of the volume of th ives, for transportation—is published every six week by it rolumes will constitute a set, or one year's su angle, the terms for which is Three Dollars, pay cribe." to the Vade Mecum are entitled to a concribe. To the Vado Mecum are entitled to account of one, hird. An order for four setts will smifally recaired, and the work forwarded to a fercias, by enclosing a ten dollar note—postage parapression of the Novelists Magazine, containing eight of the Novelists who shall procure four names to the Agent, who shall procure four names to Modern Acting Drama, or the Gentlemen's Valuena, and remait the amount of one year's subsertion for each.

Gentlemen wishing to subscribe to either of the works, will address CHARLES ALEXANDE Athenian Bulldings, Franklin Place—Philad II. July 23.

SUBSCRIPTIONS To the London, Edinburgh, Foreign, at Westminster—Quarterly Reviews—thay Magazine, Panny Cyclonedia, Reputed Letters, Parley's Magazine, e. and the Terk Register, received a second the asbacriber, where specimen Number by Register, where specimen Number by Register.

to be seen. PRANCIS M. JARBOE. Church street-Amapolis

Jene fa.